In this resolution, the City agreed to the transfer of the American Legion Building (now known as the Livingston Center) to the Merrill Historical Society, but the City retained a reversionary clause to the property. The resolution stipulates "that in the event that the Merrill Historical Society, Inc. cease to use the Property or building for the Society's collection center, the property and any improvements thereon revert to the City of Merrill's ownership.". The Merrill Historical Society is now requesting that the reversionary clause and the rights contained therein be relinquished/extinguished by the City, to enable the Merrill Historical Society to sell the property.
